

Tarter Teen Talk

By Pam Anderson

This Friday the Torrance High Tartars will be hosting their alumni at the annual Homecoming game and dance for our Golden Anniversary. Following the game against the Rolling Hills Titans, a performance will be held at the Torrance Recreation Center. This event is open to juniors, seniors, alumni and varsity football players only. See you there!

They're finally here. Last Thursday the unions received their class rings. The design includes the school motto, "Let There Be Light," and the school athletic slogan, "Victory Must Be Earned."

Congratulations to the winners in the Andy Sale. Debbie Vander Heuvel is the grand prize winner of round-trip tickets or two to Catalina Island.

Cash awards were given to: Dennis Watkins, Linda Dowling, Lynn Mai, Melody Luedloff, Marcia Chiano, Shelly Kim, Connie Dearden, and Mary Hamlen.

The senior play, "Arms and the Man," has been cast. Leading roles of Raina and Blunclli have been awarded to Margie Bromley and George Rigby. Other members of the cast will be Ken Barker as Serjius, Coleen Chuba as Louka, Nita Niece as Catherine, and Jim Anderson as the Russian officer.

Last Friday the Tartar Varsity lost a close game to the Leuzinger Olympians. The final score was 20-14. Let's all get out to support the Tartar team in their Homecoming for the '66" season. The game will be played on our field at 8 p.m.
